

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

A WEDDING of interest in Richmond people took place yesterday at Banister Lodge, Halifax county, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, when their daughter, Ethel, was married to Mr. Robert Withers Williams, of this city.

The ceremony was performed quietly at noon, only the families of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends being present. The bride, who has spent several winters in Richmond, is a popular and much admired person in her own section of the State, and will be welcomed as a charming addition to Richmond's social life when she returns from her wedding trip.

Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Williams, of Martinsville, Va., the grandson of the late Colonel Robert E. Williams, of Winchester, and the nephew of Mrs. Stephen P. Hays. For some years Mr. Williams has made Richmond his home, and is now successfully established here in business.

At the wedding, the bride was escorted by Mr. Williams, and the groom by Mr. Williams.

Bishop Talbot talked to members of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon, his subject being "People of the Plains."

Those familiar with Dr. Talbot's style as an author can readily conceive his bright, crisp and entertaining his address proved.

On Wednesday afternoon Bishop David Swann, of Louisiana, was the guest of the club, and favored the ladies with an eloquent address on "The Peace Movement."

Club hostesses for yesterday afternoon were Mrs. C. A. Harpport, Mrs. J. Lefroy, Mrs. P. A. Conquest, Mrs. James Alston Cabell, Mrs. M. D. Hays, Jr., Mrs. H. A. Sampson, Mrs. B. T. Crump and Miss Winston.

WEDDING.
The wedding of Miss Natalie Wortham to Mr. William Wirt Hume, was celebrated at 2 P. M. yesterday in Grace Street Baptist Church, the Rev. Dr. J. M. Piller officiating.

The ushers were Messrs. John W. Bates, Keith Jones, Dr. Lewis Piller, of Petersburg; Basil Jones, G. Gibson Wortham and Robert Ferguson, of Norfolk. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Bates, of New River, and the groom's sister, Miss Mary Hume. After the ceremony the bride couple left on a Northern trip.

Mathews-Gunn.
Miss Kate Gunn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Gunn, was married to Mr. Kirk Mathews yesterday morning, the wedding taking place in the home of the bride, at 10 o'clock, George W. McDonald, of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride was given in a handsome traveling costume of brown cloth and carried Bride roses. She and the groom left immediately after the ceremony for a Northern tour.

Silver Tea.
The State Mission Circle of the First Baptist Church will give a silver tea in the parlors of the church this afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

An attractive musical program has been arranged and the members of the circle rely confidently upon the success of their friends to render the occasion thoroughly enjoyable. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Helping Circle to Meet.
The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Herbert Bennett, No. 309 East Broad Street. The annual election of officers will take place at this time. Members are urged to attend promptly.

Invitations Issued.
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Martin have issued invitations to the marriage of their niece, Miss Hannah Martin Wilkison, to Mr. Littleberry James Haley, the wedding to take place Wednesday, October 23d, at 6 o'clock, in Mt. Vernon Church, Toano, Va.

Wedding at Boydville.
An ante-nuptial house party in honor of the wedding of Miss Sally Winn Faulkner to Mr. Stephen H. Snodgrass, took place yesterday at Boydville, the home of former United States Senator Charles J. Faulkner, near Martinsburg, Va. The ceremony is to be performed by the Rev. F. M. Woods, of Martinsburg, at 6 P. M., on October 23d, and is to be followed by a large reception, for which guests are bidden a half hour later.

The bride is to be given in a Faquin creation of white satin and point lace. Her veil will fall from a coronet of orange blossoms, and she will wear the pearls that adorned her mother as a bride. She will be attended by her sister, Mrs. William White, of Nashville, Tenn., in pink satin trimmed with white and gold lace, and carrying a bouquet of pink hyacinthums.

Little Miss Virginia White, the flower girl, will have on a white lingerie frock and pink ribbons. Masters John Campbell, of Kentucky, and Whiting Faulkner, of Boydville, will hold the ribbons.

Miss Virginia Fuller, of Winchester, will sing before and after the ceremony. The wedding march and a reception program will be rendered by an orchestra from Martinsburg.

Mr. J. Williams Stewart, of Martinsburg, will be best man, and the ushers will be: Messrs. C. J. Faulkner, Jr., Arthur W. Gillan, of Pennsylvania, and Harry F. Boyd and D. B. Conrad, of Winchester, Va.

Williams-Cardwell.
A society wedding of yesterday afternoon, taking place at Prospect Hill, Hanover county, the home of Judge Richard H. Cardwell, of the Supreme Court of Virginia, attracted a large party from Richmond to witness the ceremony, which made Miss Julia Cardwell the bride of Mr. Albert G. Williams, of Chesterfield county, well known in Richmond and connected in business with the Virginia Passenger and Power Company.

The hour of the wedding was 5 o'clock, and the officiating clergyman was the Rev. S. C. Southall.

Personal Mention.
